ASBG SEEKS STUDENT PARTICIPATION

ASBG has organized a letter-writing campaign to reach our legislators in Salem. There are many issues which will be debated in this session of the Oregon Legislature that directly impact students; among them are Health Care and insurance, tuition hikes, and financial aid. Simply complaining about them or waiting for someone else to do the job will not change the current situation.

Participation in the process can make a difference. If our elected officials are not pressured, they tend to sit on their thumbs; occasionally they need a gentle shove (or even a swift kick). "Why not just sign a petition," you ask? Because it will not carry as much clout as a large mound of letters. Today, February the 19th is the last day to write a letter. These letters should be personal and in your own handwriting; include your desires and complaints as the focal point. Large stacks of letters sent to individual legislators get noticed--petitions tend to fall through the cracks. If you are affected, write a letter. A great deal is at stake and letters help in decision-making. For additional information come into the ASBG office, where Jacquie Lukinich will cheerfully assist you.

VOICE YOUR CONCERNS

ASBG IS SPONSORING A LETTER WRITING CAMPAIGN.
THESE LETTERS WILL BE SENT TO OUR STATE LEGISLATORS.

Come into the ASBG office on Tuesday & Wednesday (Feb. 18th & 19th) and write letters concerning Oregon Need Grants, Oregon Health Plan, and Hope Scholarship

The Need Grant and Community College Students

The Oregon State Need Grant is available in 1996-97 to resident full-time undergraduates with an income of $31,000 or less (for a family of four). However, many of these eligible students receive no grant because the state has not funded the program to allow each eligible student to get a grant.

About 9,000 eligible students received no grant last year. About 7,000 were community college students.

Oregon provided $25.5 million in financial aid to its eligible low-income residents in the 1995-97 biennium, plus an additional $3 million for supplemental grants to students attending independent institutions.

These grants are about $858 for community college students, $1,056 for OSSHE students and $1,518 for students at independent colleges. Students at independent colleges are also currently eligible for a supplemental state grant of about $1200 each.

Oregon needs about $32.5 million in order to provide a Need Grant to each eligible low-income Oregonian. That is an increase of about $7 million over the amount allocated for the current biennium (roughly $25.5 million). Without this increase, many full-time low-income students, most of whom attend community colleges, will get no grant.

OCCA supports providing this additional money even though some of it will go to students in other sectors. More and more students transfer among sectors. Only by supporting all low-income students can we assure that opportunity is not denied for all Oregonians.

Current Need Grant funding leaves about 37% of eligible, low-income community college students without a grant. This disproportionate impact can be corrected with an additional $7 million in state support.

The Oregon Need Grant Can't Meet Student Need

Intro: The Oregon Need Grant is the state's largest grant program for college students. It provides financial aid to the neediest of Oregonians.

Because the program is under-funded, about 17,000 eligible students did not receive grants during the last biennium!

Approximate cost to cover these needy students:

$6.1
million
